CONGRESSIONAL BANK PRESIDENT JOHN LANE COMMENDED FOR SERVICE TO MONTGOMERY COUNTY

MONTGOMERY, M.D. -- John R. Lane, president of Congressional Bank, was awarded a certificate of recognition and appreciation from the Montgomery County Executive, Isiah "Ike" Leggett. Specifically, County Executive Leggett expressed his gratitude for Lane's "outstanding leadership and superb judgment" as a Revenue Authority Board Member from July 2003 through June 2007. Further, Leggett acknowledged Lane's significant role in the Victory Tower project and with the formation of the Authority's Finance Committee.

"I was honored to serve Montgomery County in this capacity and really appreciate County Executive Leggett's kind words," said Lane. "I'm eager to stay closely connected to the County and to continue serving its communities."

John Lane was a founder of and has served as the president of Congressional Bank since its inception in 2003 and is a governor-appointed member of the Maryland State Banking Board.

Congressional Bank is a community bank serving its valued customers in the greater Washington, D.C. area. The bank has four branch locations: Potomac, M.D.; Rockville, M.D.; Reston, V.A. and Washington, D.C. For more information, visit www.congressionalbank.com.